

Jan Boxer

Jan Boxer is an expert in the areas of leadership, team development, group coaching, change management, interpersonal communication and career transition. In addition to coaching hundreds of senior leaders and their teams over the last 25 years she has become a trusted advisor to those involved in leading and communicating large-scale initiatives in some of the nation's most highly visible and highly scrutinized organizations.

Jan's experience is far reaching—she has coached global leaders managing complex stakeholder webs and international workforces. She has guided senior leaders charged with ironing out our nation's healthcare policy and C-suite leaders fighting for profitability in one of our country's largest organizations—the U.S. Postal Service. Political appointees within the Executive Office of the President of the United States have sought her counsel, along with SIS Officers within the intelligence community, deans and faculty within prestigious universities, engineers and scientists dedicated to homeland security, and a multitude of entrepreneurs/small business owners.

Ms. Boxer is well known locally and is recognized as a “coach's coach,” evidenced by her appointment to Georgetown University's adjunct faculty where she served as a co-founder of the Advanced Certificate Program for Leadership Coaching. Similarly, as the owner of Strategic Partners, Inc., Jan has led highly experienced coaches and consultants in providing services such as organizational culture assessments, reorganization and change management consulting, leadership effectiveness surveys, expert group facilitation, and strategic planning.

Ms. Boxer is certified to use a broad array of leadership assessment tools including The Leadership Circle Profile, the Hogan Assessment Series, Voices 360, EQi 2.0, the Myers Briggs Type Indicator Step II, and OPM 360. Jan earned her Master's Degree from George Washington University and is a graduate of the Institute of Life Coach Training, Fort Collins, Colorado, an International Coach Federation accredited coach training institution. Additional certifications include Global Leadership Coach, Global Coaches Network (2009); a two-year Spiritual Coaching development program in the RUH Method (2012); two-year Couples Coaching Certification, Relational Life Therapy Institute, (expected 2017).
